

League Rules for the 2014-15 Season

16-Team Limit

There is a 16-team limit for all evening leagues to eliminate enforced byes. If these leagues are over-subscribed, first preference will be given to teams as follows:

- Four points for returning members to that league
- Three points for new members
- Two points for returning associate members to that league
- One point for new associate members

Teams of more than four players may use any four to determine their total point score. When two or more teams have the same score, priority will be given according to the years of seniority (of members) in that league.

Spares

Regular curlers in any PACC league may spare at no charge in any other league.

- Spares may play up to the position of the absent player.
- For championship / playoff games, non-PACC spares are not allowed. Spares must play front-end positions.

Tuesday & Thursday Men's

- A regular team member must throw last rocks.
- Spares can only play lead or second.
- Each team must have two members present or forfeit the game.

Open, Mixed or Novice

- With one spare only, a regular team member must throw last rocks. The spare can play up to the position of the missing player.
- With two spares, if the skip and third are absent, the spares can replace any position.

Men's Leagues

Teams will be seeded into four divisions: After the first round robin of three games, all teams will be reseeded by points. After a second and third round robin, all teams will again be reseeded by points. At the end of the fourth round robin, all teams will be sorted by points. The top team on Tuesday and Thursday will be the regular league champions. Points will be awarded as follows:

	A	B	C	D
Win	5	4	3	2
Tie	2.5	2	1.5	1

The top four teams from Tuesday and Thursday will then have double knockout playoff for Club Championship. The winning team will have the right to represent the Peace Arch Curling Club in the Lower Mainland Club Challenge.

The next four teams (5-8) will playoff for the B championship, teams 9-12 will play for the C championship, and teams 13-16 will play for the D championship. Playoffs for B, C, and D events will be single knockout.

Women's Leagues

The club championship will be a 1 game playoff on the Day of Champions between the Wednesday night champion and the Thursday day league champion.

The Wednesday night ladies league champions will be determined by the page playoff format between the top 4 teams after regular season play.

The Thursday day ladies league playoff TBA.

The winning team will have the right to represent the Peace Arch Curling Club in the Lower Mainland Club Challenge.
